Mr. A. M. Jamison, general manager of the Banning Company, states that the season of 1910 promises to be the most successful yet enjoyed by his company, and also states that thousands of dollars have been spent in improvements this verying and that hundred (200) miles; the aggregate miles. in improvements this spring and that hundred (200) miles; the aggregate milemuch more shall be spent this fall for age of said main line of railroad and much more shall be spent this fall for the winter season. Mr. Jamison is now busy planning and making arrangements for a Great Fourth; in fact, the greatest ever. The great naval battle of 65 boats on either side will attract thousands to Avalon as it has in the past. The hundreds of action seekers from this section will be soughly supprised on arriving on the section of stock so subscribted for by said parties.
